

Announcing a new partnership!

DeafTax.com, REAL ECONOMIC IMPACT TOUR and the Family Financial Literacy Coalition have joined together to provide free income tax preparation and electronic filing to people for whom American Sign Language is their primary means of communication. IRS Certified VITA volunteers will prepare the tax returns.

- Both federal and state income tax returns will be prepared.
-  Videophone will allow taxpayers and volunteers to communicate in real-time.
- FREE tax preparation services available from February 13 to April 15, 2009.
- Individuals and families earning $42,000 or less without business income are eligible for this service.
- All tax preparation will be by appointment only.
- If you need special accommodation such as tactile interpreter, display magnifier, etc. please specify your request at least two weeks prior to the appointment.

What to bring:

- Social Security cards for everyone listed on tax return.
- Two forms of ID for primary taxpayer and spouse (one must be photo ID.)
- Birthdates of all individuals to appear on return.
- All W-2s and 1099s and any other income reporting documents.
- Documentation for all deductions and/or credits claimed, i.e. education credits.
- Documentation supporting a claim to a dependency exemption (for example, Form 8332 or Form 2120)
- Day care provider's identifying number and receipts (if applicable)
- Bank routing and account numbers for direct deposit
- A copy of last year's federal and state returns (if available)
